

Simon Cox

Simon Cox is a barrister at Doughty Street Chambers. He was called to the Bar in 1992 and has practiced since 1995. Throughout his time at the Bar he has specialised in representing individuals before tribunals in the fields of social welfare and immigration. He is a founder member and regular chair of the Housing and Immigration Group, which looks at legal and practical developments affecting housing and welfare provision to immigrants. He has co-authored a number of books in the field, including Blackstone's Guide to the Asylum & Immigration Act 2004, Migration and Social Security Handbook (2nd ed.) and Child Support Handbook (4th - 6th eds). Before entering practice as a barrister, Simon was employed as the Free Representation Unit's social security caseworker.